

June 30

Spurling, arrived at Boston this morning with a big fare of 25,000 fresh mackerel, taken out to the southard. This is one of the very largest fresh mackerel trips of the year and will add considerably to the stock of the McKown.

Sch. Lucania, Capt. Martin L. Welsh, made the splendid stock of $3168 on her maiden southern trip, the crew profiting thereby to the extent of $151.65 each.

At Newport this noon are the sch. Ralph L. Hall with 250 barrels fresh mackerel, the sch. Lottie G. Merchant with 150 barrels and one other with 100 barrels.

LITTLE LOBSTERS.

Expected That Yield of Fry Will Exceed All Previous Years.

Sch. Grampus of the U. S. fish commission arrived at Portland Tuesday from a trip along the coast to Boothbay collecting seed lobsters for the hatchery at this port.

It is expected that the yield of fry for this year will surpass all previous years, and is estimated at about 100,000,000. The success thus attained is attributed to the assistance of the fishermen collecting the seed lobsters in the pounds since last fall, where they were easily obtained by the commissioners. It is said that nearly one-half of the fry that has been planted along this coast of the state were put into the waters of Casco Bay.

With the completion of the hatchery at Boothbay, the work of the commissioners along this coast will be greatly benefitted as the fry will then be taken to Boothbay instead of to Gloucester, as is necessary at present. The new hatchery, when finished, will be under the charge of Capt. Hahn, formerly commanding the sch. Grampus.

SCH. VICTOR AT BOSTON.

Capt. Jacobs Has Another Fine Mackerel Fare.

Two More Sainers at Newport with Trips.

Sch. Victor, Capt. Solomon Jacobs, arrived at Boston this morning with a nice trip, 15,000 fresh mackerel and 60 barrels of salt mackerel. Sch. Manomet was also there with 4000 fresh mackerel.

About twelve barrels of large mackerel were taken at Coffin's Island, Monday morning. About 200 of the fish were sold in town at 15 and 20 cents apiece.—Liverpool, N. S., Advance.

Wednesday was the first really fresh mackerel day Portland has had, for early in the morning trips aggregating over 4300 fish were landed for local dealers. Sch. Mabelle E. Leavitt had 2500 and sch. Wesley W. Sinnett 1500, both of whom sold to John Lovitt & Co., W. M. Griffin in his small boat brought in 400 count for J. W. Trefethen.

Mackerel have fairly struck in off Cape Elizabeth and are said to be good in size and are running fairly plentiful. Much trouble is reported from the dogfish which are close in near shore.

ONLY TWELVE DAYS GONE.

But Sch. Kineo Has Arrived With Another Big Fare.

Sch. Kineo, Capt. John Stream, arrived last night after an absence of only 12 days with another fine fare, 10,000 pounds of salt cod and 10,000 pounds of fresh cod, 10,000 pounds of halibut, and 60,000 pounds of the largest kind of fresh cusk. This is a big trip, considering the time gone, and shows that Capt. Stream and his good crew must certainly keep hustling every minute they are on the fishing ground. It means another good stock and share for vessel and all hands and brings them home in time to celebrate the Glorious Fourth.

DID WELL OF HERE.

Some of the Porgy Steamers Made Well Yesterday.

A fleet of seven porgy steamers were operating off here yesterday and got some big hauls. Four of them came in here last night and the Allen, which secured a full load, steamed for headquarters at Linnekin's Bay to land her trip.

Newfoundland Fishermen Warned.

A dispatch from St. John's, N. F., says: Newfoundland fishing vessels having occupied station on the treaty coast in the mistaken belief that the treaty ratifications had been exchanged, the Frenchmen appealed to the British commodore, who dispatched a warship to the scene to warn the offending colonial vessels from the coast. The incident is the occasion of much concern.

July 2

Fine Salt Cod Fare.

Sch. Lizzie M. Stanley, Capt. Albert Larkin, arrived from the Gulf of St. Lawrence with a fine fare of 170,000 pounds of salt cod. The craft has not been long gone and has done well.

Capt. Larkin reported that he has seen hardly any of the salt bankers, the last one being sch. Madonna, which he saw about a month ago.

He reports that the mackerel fishery at the Magdalenes has been a total failure but that herring were plenty, he getting a baiting there is late as June 21.

Mackerel in Squam River.

Mackerel of the 10 inch variety have struck in Squam river and some of the campers have been taking them on the hook during the past few days.
